The Ryder Cup is one of the most prestigious events in golf, pitting the best players from Europe against the best from the United States. In 2021, the tournament was held at Whistling Straits in Wisconsin, and Europe emerged victorious with a score of 19-9. This article provides a detailed account of every moment of the Ryder Cup, highlighting the victories and strategies that led to Europe's triumph.

Day 1

The first day of the Ryder Cup featured four-ball matches in the morning and foursomes matches in the afternoon. Europe won the morning session 3-1, with victories from Rory McIlroy and Ian Poulter, Jon Rahm and Sergio Garcia, and Lee Westwood and Matt Fitzpatrick. The United States won the afternoon session 3-1, with victories from Dustin Johnson and Collin Morikawa, Brooks Koepka and Bryson DeChambeau, and Justin Thomas and Patrick Cantlay.

Day 2

The second day of the Ryder Cup featured four-ball matches in the morning and foursomes matches in the afternoon. Europe won the morning session 3-1, with victories from Rory McIlroy and Ian Poulter, Jon Rahm and Sergio Garcia, and Tommy Fleetwood and Viktor Hovland. The United States won the afternoon session 3-1, with victories from Dustin Johnson and Collin Morikawa, Brooks Koepka and Bryson DeChambeau, and Justin Thomas and Patrick Cantlay.

Day 3

The third day of the Ryder Cup featured singles matches. Europe won the singles session 7-1, with victories from Rory McIlroy, Ian Poulter, Jon Rahm, Sergio Garcia, Tommy Fleetwood, Viktor Hovland, and Shane Lowry. The United States won the only match of the session, with Dustin Johnson defeating Lee Westwood.

Europe's victory in the 2021 Ryder Cup was a testament to the team's strength and unity. The players performed admirably under pressure, and the team's captain, Padraig Harrington, made all the right decisions. The United States team was a formidable opponent, but Europe was simply too strong on this occasion.
