History of the Masterwork Classics Duets Level Series

The Masterwork Classics Duets Level series was first published in the early 1900s by the Theodore Presser Company. The series was originally edited by Edwin Hughes, a renowned pianist and педагог. Hughes carefully selected the repertoire for the series, choosing pieces that were both musically and technically accessible to students of all levels.

The Masterwork Classics Duets Level series has been revised and updated several times over the years. The current edition, edited by Martha Mier, includes over 100 duets from the Baroque, Classical, and Romantic eras. The pieces are arranged in progressive order of difficulty, making it easy for students to find pieces that are appropriate for their skill level.
