Detective Alyssa Wyatt is a brilliant and driven detective who is determined to solve the most challenging cases. But when she is assigned to investigate the murder of a young woman, she quickly realizes that this case is unlike any other she has ever encountered.

The victim, Sarah Jones, was a beautiful and successful lawyer who had everything to live for. But someone brutally murdered her in her own home, and the only clues left behind are a few strands of hair and a single fingerprint.

As Alyssa digs deeper into the investigation, she discovers that Sarah was involved in a dangerous relationship with a powerful businessman. She also learns that Sarah had been receiving threatening letters from an unknown stalker.

Alyssa soon realizes that she is in over her head. The case is becoming more and more dangerous, and she is starting to fear for her own life. But she is determined to find Sarah's killer, no matter what the cost.

With its fast-paced plot, complex characters, and shocking twists, Detective Alyssa Wyatt is a nail biting crime thriller that you won't be able to put down.
